

RESTRICTED “CLASS B” CDL:

The Restricted CDL will allow you to drive “Class B” vehicles, which are defined as:

- Any vehicle with a GVWR of 26,001 or more pounds
- Any such vehicle towing a vehicle not in excess of 10,000 pounds GVWR
- Any vehicle of a lesser classification except motor-driven cycles

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS:

The restricted CDL holder may transport only the following hazardous materials: In Illinois, a driver must be age 18 to transport any type of hazardous materials and age 21 to transport any type of hazardous materials into another state.

- 1,000 gallons or less of diesel fuel
- 3,000 gallons or less of liquid fertilizer
- solid fertilizers that are not mixed with any organic substance

The restricted CDL does not allow the operation of “Class A” vehicles (such as semi tractor/trailer combos) or any vehicles transporting fertilizer mixed with any organic substances, fuel, gasoline, pesticides and propane, or vehicles designed to transport 16 or more passengers.

RENEWAL:

You can renew your restricted driving privileges without a fee for up to four years from the date of issuance of your first Restricted CDL. A new application is required for each renewal and is limited to 210 days per year.

SAFETY CHECKLIST FOR TRUCK OPERATION

Demonstrate and discuss with employees the safe operation of the truck.

- Know the truck before operating:
 - a) Parking (hand) Brake
 - b) Headlights
Parking Lights
Brake Lights
Emergency Lights
Turn Signals
 - c) Tires
 - d) Horn
 - e) Windshield Wipers
 - f) Rear-Vision Mirrors
 - g) Gear Shift
 - h) Safety Belts
- Be careful when making turns. Trucks require more turning area than cars.
- Allow more time for acceleration when pulling out into traffic.
- Don’t tailgate. Trucks require greater stopping distances (at least one vehicle-length for every 10 mph between you and the vehicle ahead of you.)
- Obey weigh-station scale signs.
- Observe truck speed limits.
- Cautiously approach low overheads such as gas station and motel canopies, bridges, toll booths and drive-throughs.
- Avoid backing the truck. If necessary, have someone guide you.
- Drive and park cautiously on hills.
